Legal Capacity: Good Practice supporting decision making.

Legal capacity is a basic human right.

It is the right to do things such as sign a contract or sell goods.

Article 12 of the Convention on the Rights of People with Disability explains legal capacity.

The Committee on the rights of people with disability interpreted this article.

They are experts explaining the meaning of article 12.

Spanish law and article 12 of the Convention do not say the same.

The objective of this Conference is to explore ways to make real article 12 for people with intellectual or developmental disability.
